

Dawn Noelle Archer has worked with children and families for most of her life. Her time as a Daycare Mom, Pre-school Teacher, Parent Consultant for Windmill Project, and Associate Pastor for United Church of Christ has prepared her well for the journey that is writing.

Dawn is a native of Minnesota, currently resides in North Dakota, but her heart has long belonged to Montana where she met her husband David. They have two adult children, Emily and Matthew.

Remnants of Soul is her second book. Dawn also authored the children's book Oh Joy, Bok Choy & Other Greens for Me!
